THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 7, 1969

Honorable C. W. Young
Senator of the State of Florida
State Capitol
Tallahassee, Florida

Dear Bill:

It pleased me to learn on my return from my round-the-world trip that you have been named winner of the 1969 Allen Morris Legislative Award.

I understand that this honor is more commonly referred to as "the most valuable" award. I am glad to see its value further upgraded by the extraordinary abilities of its first Republican recipient.

Please accept my warmest congratulations and my best wishes always.

Sincerely,

RICHARD NIXON

The President Pro Tempore presiding.

SCR 64—A Concurrent Resolution In Memoriam Newman Collins Brackin.

Was taken up and read the second time in full. On motion by Senator Barrow, SCR 64 was unanimously adopted and certified to the House.

On motion by Senator Gunter, the President appointed Senators Gunter, Williams and Trask as a committee to escort

Suzanne Rogers of Ocala, Florida Citrus Queen, to the rostrum where she addressed the Senate briefly.

On motion by Senator Broxson, the President appointed Senators Broxson, Barrow and Horne as a committee to escort Mrs. Alfred B. Maclay to the rostrum.

On motion by Senator Broxson, the rules were waived and the following resolution was introduced out of order:

By Senator Broxson—

SR 633—A resolution thanking Mrs. Alfred B. Maclay for her donation of Maclay Gardens, formerly Killearn Gardens, to the citizens of the state.

WHEREAS, Mrs. Alfred B. Maclay, through her generosity and kindness, has donated to generations of present and future Floridians the Alfred B. Maclay Gardens, formerly Killearn Gardens, a labor of love and diligent devotion which she and her husband planned and built, and

WHEREAS, the unsurpassed splendor of these Gardens will continue to be a source of joy and soul-quieting serenity for generations to come, and

WHEREAS, Maclay Gardens offers the visitor a sample of scenic splendor, solitude, and respite from the busy workaday world which is seldom surpassed within the borders of our most beautiful state, and

WHEREAS, Maclay Gardens provides in a bewildering variety of flora and fauna, including the vanishing native strain of the Torreya tree, a haven for Florida's cherished natural resources, which are struggling against the ravages of civilization, and

WHEREAS, Maclay Gardens served as the site of many long-remembered legislative receptions, barbecues, and get-togethers, and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the state are indebted to Mrs. Maclay for her philanthropic donation of this valuable natural retreat, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the Senate does hereby, on behalf of the people of the State of Florida, express its gratitude and humble appreciation to Mrs. Alfred B. Maclay for her generosity in donating Maclay Gardens to the People of the State of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be furnished Mrs. Alfred B. Maclay.

Was read the first time by title. On motion by Senator Broxson, SR 633 was read the second time in full and unanimously adopted.

SR 530—A Resolution In Memoriam John Preston Hall, Sr.

WHEREAS, during the long period in which he faithfully performed the arduous tasks, oftentimes fraught with grimest realities, incident to the office of sheriff of a county, there ever remained with the late John P. Hall the elements of human kindness and genuine concern for the welfare of others, and

WHEREAS, he came into an office suffering conditions little short of those of the pioneer era and by dint of perseverance, good management and the innate qualities of humanitarianism so grew with the times that he has left to posterity a lasting evidence of his good works among men, and

WHEREAS, we would recount to his memory something of the lasting achievements of this exceptional man, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That this Resolution be spread upon the pages of the Journal of the Florida Senate—

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION IN MEMORIAM NEWMAN COLLINS BRACKIN

WHEREAS, on July 8, 1969, there was lost to the people of his community and to the entire State a most valuable member—a man exemplary in his private life, eminently successful in the field of business and whose public service and devotion to the betterment of mankind had marked his entire life span, and

WHEREAS, his going from our midst is marked by a sense of deep loss and sadness, and

WHEREAS, his life's work was such that the recounting thereof must needs be an inspiration to all who would reflect thereon, and

WHEREAS, we would acknowledge the legacy of his splendid achievements, honor his memory and express our condolences, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING:

That this Concurrent Resolution be spread upon the pages of the Journals of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Florida—

IN MEMORIAM NEWMAN COLLINS BRACKIN FORTY-SECOND PRESIDENT OF THE FLORIDA SENATE

—who was born in Hartford, Geneva County, Alabama, on May 15, 1908. His parents became residents of Florida during the third year of his age, settling in Bonifay. The public schools of Washington and Holmes Counties and Bonifay High School were the scenes of his early education. In his youth he gave evidence of a great strength and stability of character in the face of adversity for when his father, Mathew Newman Brackin, died and left him orphaned at the age of sixteen, he met the necessity of supporting his mother and sister by going to work in a drug store in Bonifay. In addition to meeting this need he managed to save enough money with which to take a pharmaceutical course. In 1935 he was graduated from the Southern College of Pharmacy at Atlanta, Georgia. During the same year he took up residence in Crestview and established Brackin's Drug Store, which he owned and operated until its sale shortly before his demise.

In 1938 he married Miss Margaret Marshall and to them was born a son, Newman Collins Brackin, Jr., generally known as "Buddy". His family was ever a source of great pride to him and the object of his deep devotion.

By religious affiliation he was a Methodist and served on the Board of Stewards of the First United Methodist Church. He was a member of Kiwanis, Masons, Shriners, the Florida Pharmaceutical Association and the Boy Scout Council. Long a civic leader, he had served as former mayor and councilman of the City of Crestview, a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber. He was currently serving as Chairman of the Crestview Public Housing Authority, Chairman of the Okaloosa County Planning and Zoning Commission and as a director of the First National Bank of Crestview, which latter post he had held since its inception. For a number of years he owned and operated the Brackin Ford Company, Ford dealership, and was currently co-owner of the Brackin-Ward Ford Company.

The people of Northwest Florida are the especial recipients of many years of his hand in hand work with Congressman Bob Sikes in the furtherance of their interests. He played one of the key roles in developing the Holiday Isles Housing Subdivision in Destin and served as president of the C.B.S. Corporation. The establishment of the Okaloosa Memorial Hospital in Crestview was brought about by a bill which he was instrumental in introducing in the Legislature.

His legislative service began in the Florida House of Representatives where he served during the years 1941 and 1943. In 1944 he was elected to the Senate from the then 1st Senatorial District. He served his District in the Senate in the years 1947, 1949, 1951, 1957 and 1959. That he was held in the greatest esteem by his contemporaries in the Senate is amply evidenced by the fact that they accorded him the highest honor in their power to bestow upon one of their number namely, the Senate Presidency. In the year 1949 he served as the forty-second President of the Florida Senate.

To his legislative service he brought that same earnestness of purpose and indefatigable effort that marked his activities as an outstanding citizen and eminently successful business man. He led the fight in the Senate for the Florida system of welfare, health and education and helped initiate the Minimum Foundation Education System in Florida. He was an avid hunter and sportsman but his fascination with wildlife and devotion to the outdoors which carried him on hunting expeditions as far as Wyoming, Texas, Montana and Colorado to stalk deer, elk, moose and other wild game and on trips either cane pole fishing in lakes or trolling from his boat in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico was coupled with an enthusiastic interest in the conservation of fish and game. He ever lent his efforts to all conservation projects and in his home area was an important figure in stocking the Okaloosa County streams with quality fish.

The Okaloosa News-Journal, speaking editorially on July 10, 1969, presented the sentiments of his home community, which he had served so long and so faithfully, as well as the sentiments of all who knew him well, in the words:

"His experience, civic-mindedness and business and leadership abilities will be sadly missed.

"The city, county and state can ill afford to lose him."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Concurrent Resolution duly attested by the President and the Secretary of the Senate and the Speaker and the Clerk of the House of Representatives under the Great Seal of the State of Florida be forwarded to Mrs. Newman C. Brackin, Mr. Newman C. Brackin, Jr., Mrs. Newell Brock, all of Crestview, Mrs. Lee Anna Martin of West Palm Beach and Mr. Hosea Brackin of Oakley, California, widow, son, sister, half-sister and half-brother, respectively, of our esteemed former member together with the condolences of the members of these Legislative Bodies in Session assembled.

the rearing of his daughter, Dena Mae, son, J. P., Jr., and two stepsons, Al and David Ivey, and his eminently successful career as a businessman and public official.

Latterly referred to as the "Patriarch of Clay County", he gave early evidence of the extensive and continuing exercise of his many God-given talents. In addition to his long tenure as a faithful public official he had been successfully engaged in many other pursuits. He was one of the county's early cowboys, beginning in 1915 when he became the top hand in charge of a large herd of cattle on a ranch operated by the St. Johns River Cattle Association. This career was interrupted by service with the Army motor transport corps overseas during World War I. He returned in 1919 and became a stockholder in the Bank of Green Cove Springs in 1920. He was named to the board of directors in 1926 and in 1938 became chairman of the board and president of the bank. He also had extensive holdings of land, cattle and timber, and his advice in such areas was eagerly sought by others engaged in like interests.

When he came to the office of Sheriff of Clay County on January 8, 1929 it was not even equipped with a telephone. One of his first activities as sheriff was to provide a phone for the office. His other equipment then consisted of a badge, a pistol, one deputy and a Model A Ford. There were times when the Ford proved more of a liability than an asset for there were few paved roads in Clay County at that time.

Undaunted by these modest beginnings—almost unbelievable in the present day—and by dent of his understanding and sympathetic attitude, fearlessness—he had been elected on a platform "to run out the bootleggers", which he did in short order—and constant attention to duty he and his office grew in efficiency. He brought to public office that same degree of business acumen which marked the conduct of his private enterprises and was ever zealous to modernize and expand the office for the use and benefit of the people of his county. When he retired from the post of sheriff in 1965 he left an office improved beyond comparison with the almost ludicrous picture it presented thirty-six years earlier.

He was a former president of the Florida Sheriffs Association and a past member of the Board of Directors. He was elected Treasurer of the Association in 1946 and served in that capacity until his retirement at which time he was granted a life membership and faithfully continued attending meetings. He was named to the Administrative Board of the Florida Sheriffs Bureau, created by the Legislature at the request of the Florida Sheriffs Association.

He was one of the founders and served as the first treasurer of the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch at Live Oak, established in 1957 to provide a home for needy and worthy boys. He was still serving on the Board of Trustees of the Ranch at the time of his demise on March 24, 1970. A special fund was created on March 26, 1970, to establish a permanent memorial at the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch honoring the long record and exemplary achievements of this kindly and highly respected citizen, who fabulously rose from orphan to millionaire and yet found time to give so much of his talents to the service of his fellowman during his life's span of seventy-five years.

He had been a member of the Green Cove Springs Rotary Club, the local Elks Club, Moose Lodge 455, Morocco Temple Shrine; was a 50-year Mason and member of Cabul Lodge 116, F. and A. M., the V.F.W. and the Independent Order of Oddfellows.

Be It Further Resolved that a copy of this Resolution, duly attested under the seal of the Florida Senate, together with the condolences of this Body, be forwarded to the family of the late, illustrious John P. Hall.

Was taken up and read the second time in full. On motion by Senator Williams, SR 530 was unanimously adopted.

On motion by Senator Barron Rule 2.5 was waived and the Committee on Insurance was granted permission to consider SB 294 at a scheduled meeting on April 15.
